Dear Customers, Suppliers and Partners

We are all aware that the current emergency situation caused by the Coronavirus epidemic, is putting a lot of pressure on our companies.

This unexpected and exceptional situation is having a strong impact on every segment of domestic and international economies, with heavy consequences on all businesses.

In this emergency it is of utmost importance to guarantee the regular efficiency of the chain of payments, as an essential condition for the survival of businesses and the preservation of jobs. Each one of us must therefore act responsibly, in the interest of all, and seek financial support with the deputed parties and institutions, such as banks, emergency public funding, and the like, without disrupting the regular course of business payments.

Delfin deeply feels such responsibility, towards its suppliers and employees, and guarantees that all payments towards them will be honored punctually.

At the same time, Delfin expects from its customers and business partners the same responsible attitude and commitment to honor payments within the agreed terms.

Wishing that this emergency situation will end as soon as possible, and to be back to business as usual, let's overcome this together with COURAGE and continue CREATING VALUE.
